Detectives from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department's Parks Bureau are seeking the public's assistance in locating the suspect in an attempt abduction of a ten year old girl.

On July 3, 2010, at 4:00 p.m., the victim was playing at Pearblossom Park, 33922 North 121 Street East, Pearblossom, 93553, with friends and relatives. She strayed from her group and was approached by the suspect who grabbed her arm and attempted to take her to a secluded portion of the park. The victim was able to free herself from the suspects grasp and run to her cousin who was playing nearby. They advised park personnel of the incident who immediately alerted local law enforcement.

The suspect is described as a male white, 30-40 years old, 5' 9" to 6' tall, medium build. He was last seen wearing a white T-shirt, brown shorts and dark sunglasses. He was seen in a silver compact vehicle with a spoiler.

The victim working with a Los Angeles County Sheriff's Departments Graphics Arts Specialist composed this likeness of the suspect.
